

"Fresh, spirited, and accomplished."
- Scott Cantrell, Dallas Morning
News

"Among the most effective and creative storytellers in North Dallas."
- Richard Oliver, TheaterJones

"Transformative"
- Eve Hill-Agnus, D Magazine

"Impeccable"
- Cheryl Callon, TheaterJones

[verdigris]

An innovative choral experience

DUST BOWL

HAMON HALL, DALLAS, TX

Thursday, February 27, 7:30 pm

Friday, February 28, 7:30 pm

Saturday, February 29, 7:30 pm

ST. STEPHEN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH FT. WORTH, TX

Sunday, March 1, 7:30 pm

THE ELEVATOR
PROJECT
ATAT PERFORMING ARTS CENTER
2019-2020 SEASON

Celebrating local
dance, theatre,
and art in the
Dallas Arts District.

Enrich our community by gathering musicians from around the country to perform diverse choral music at the highest level.

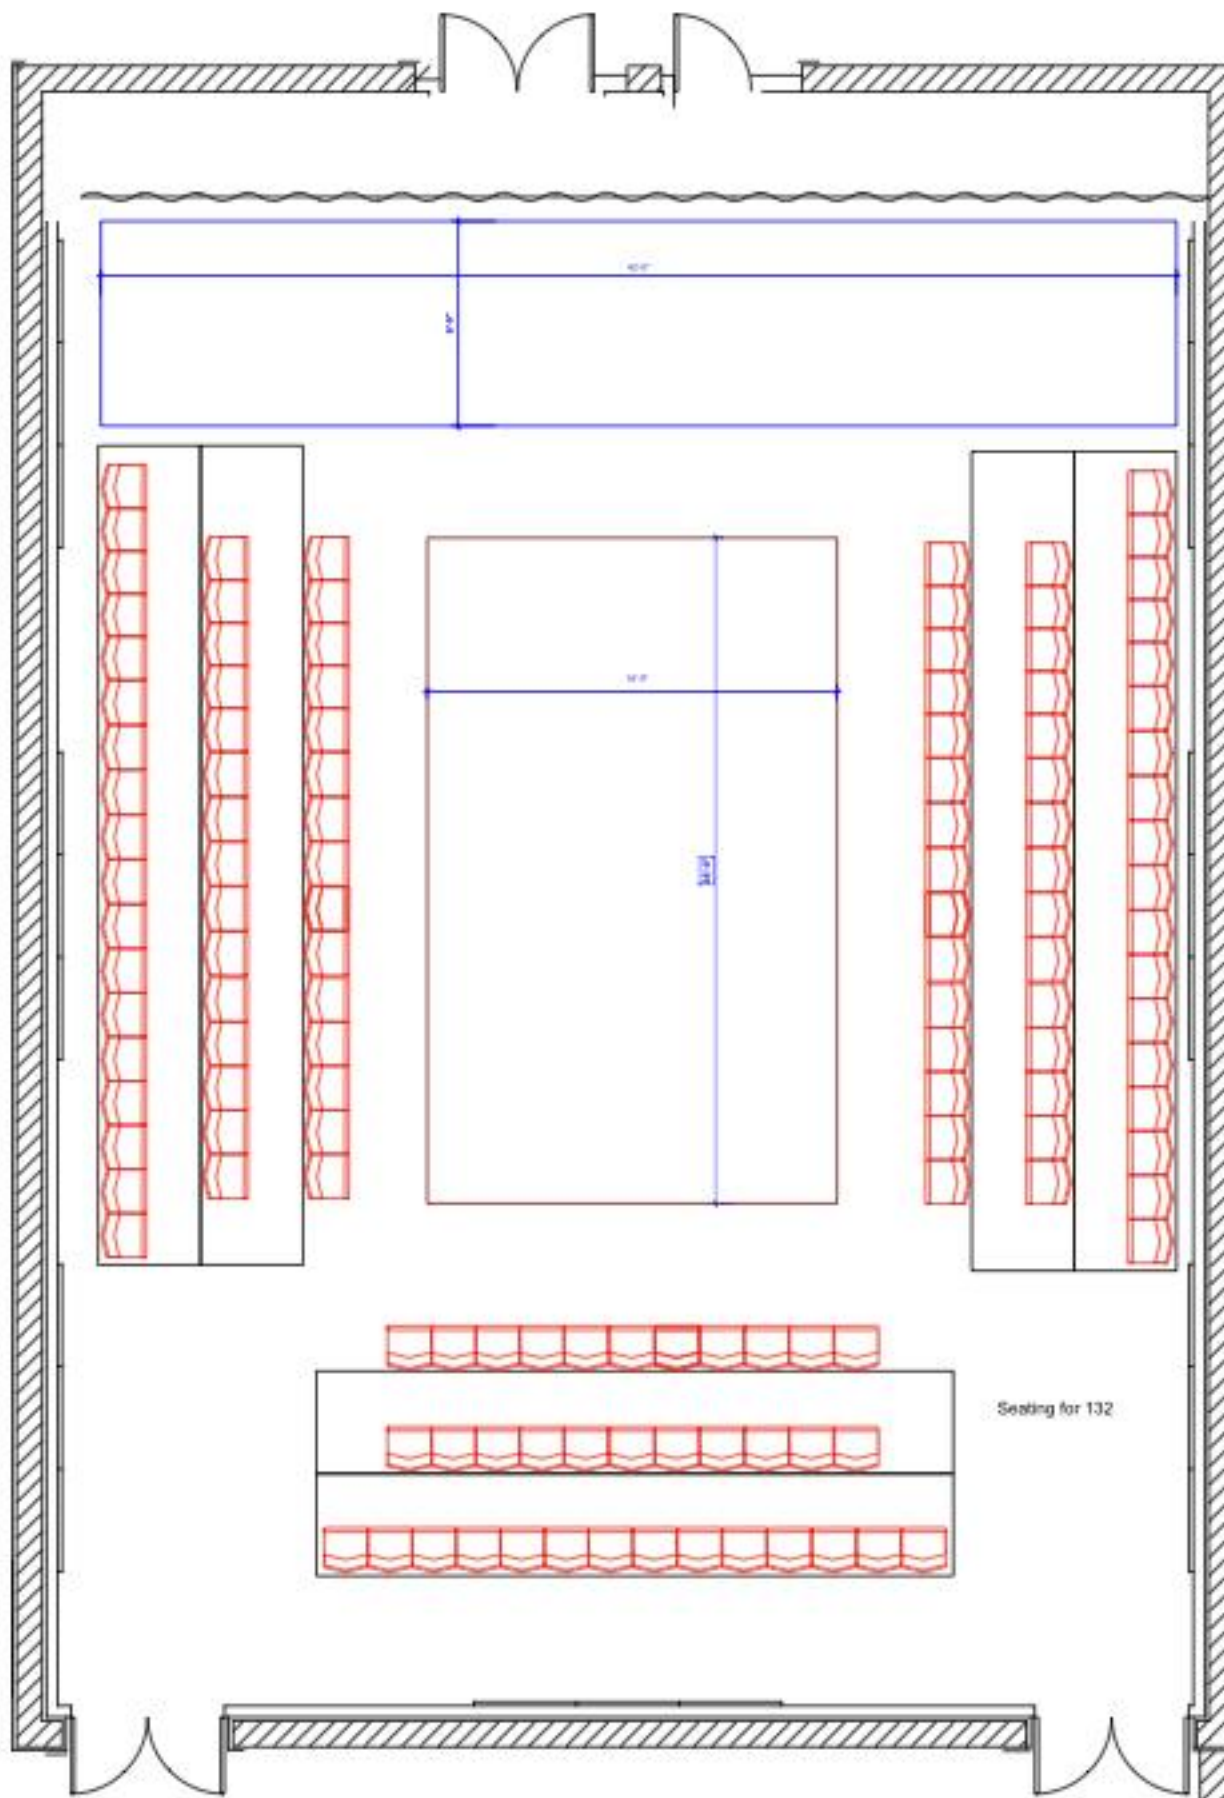

Ronald Witzke
Director of Vocal Studies and Opera
William Jewell College

Anthony Maglione
Director of Choral Activities and Composer
William Jewell College

[verdigris]

Inspire audiences through innovative choral programming that engages more than just the ear of the listener.

Ground Plan for Hamon Hall- AT& T Performing Arts Center 1/2" = 1' drawn by H. Bart McGeehon

Vectorworks Educational Version

Invest into the next generation of musicians, offering free concert admission to students and teachers of music and engaging school music programs through educational outreach.

We Need Your Help

Tell people about Dust Bowl.

Like our social media pages and help us promote the event.

Media Connections

Bring a friend to a performance.

Other Programs

Upcoming collaboration with:
SOLUNA Festival
Voices of Change
ATEC Lightsquad
Joshua Peugh

April 19-21
Hamon Hall

COMPOSER
COMPETITION
[verdigris]

ION Composer Competition
Open to all local composers, this competition is designed to create a unique Dallas choral voice. Submission deadline: March 31, 2020

Drink & Sing: Valentines Day
February 7, 2020
Steam Theory Brewing
Company

We teach you how to sing
drinking songs from all over the world!

[verdigris]